

What is claimed is:

1. A motorcycle accessory, comprising a planar portion having at least one aperture dimensioned suitable to hold a beverage container and at least one compartment having a cover operatively associated said compartment, said planar portion connectable to a motorcycle and positioned forward of a motorcycle's handlebars.